ABOUT VICTOR BURRILL

I'm Victor Burrill, Chairman of the Business Executive Network in Vietnam. I help senior managers and leadership teams turn complexity into clarity — building trust, driving growth, and achieving sustainable performance.

With more than 30 years of management experience, including over two decades in Asia, I bring a rare blend of global perspective and local insight. Having served as General Manager of three companies and as an entrepreneur, I understand firsthand the challenges of building and leading high-performance teams in today's competitive marketplace.

As an internationally certified executive coach and leadership trainer, I've facilitated hundreds of seminars, workshops, and executive education programs across Asia and the UK. I have also collaborated with some of the world's most respected providers of leadership and professional development, including FranklinCovey, ITD World, and the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL®).

Known for my high-energy, engaging style, I create environments where leaders sharpen focus, strengthen resilience, and lead with confidence in times of change.

WHAT I DO

- » Executive Coaching: One-on-one and group coaching for CEOs and senior leaders to strengthen clarity, resilience, and authentic leadership.
- » Facilitation: Aligning leadership teams, solving complex challenges, and charting bold strategies through workshops, peer groups, and executive retreats.
- » Leadership Development: High-impact programs that build trust, collaboration, and sustainable performance across organizations.
- » Speaking & Moderation: Keynotes and event moderation on leadership, agility, and business transformation.
